Incident Date and Time: Friday, June 15, 2018 at approximately 7am

Location: 500 block of Dartmouth Avenue, San Carlos

Type of Crimes/Incident: PC 22010 Possession of Nunchaku
PC 466 Possession of Burglary Tools
PC 496(a) Receiving Known Stolen Property
HS 11364 – Controlled Substance Paraphernalia

Suspect Information: Caleb Michael Bodine, 25 year old male from San Francisco (Transient)

Summary:

On Friday, June 15th, at approximately 7:05 am, Caleb Bodine was approached by deputies as he walked eastbound along the 1800 block of San Carlos Avenue. A records check of Bodine's personal information revealed that he was on probation for petty theft. A subsequent probation search was done and Bodine was found to have 11 pairs of sunglasses, hypodermic needles, a meth pipe, a window punch, a hammer, nunchaku as well as with other items in possession. Bodine was placed under arrest for the above-mentioned violations.

Later that same morning, at approximately 9:15 am, a resident reported her pair of sunglasses were missing from her vehicle along with other items. Deputies were dispatched to her residence and in speaking with the victim, she described multiples items that Bodine was found to be in possession of earlier that day. The deputies were able to return the victim's property to her.
